to function till a new Committee is appointed and of the panel to be elected by the R. A. at the Birthday session.

(15) Strictly speaking, all the standing Committees are dissolved after the new elections, and the question of continuing them by an order passed after the 12th March 1927 cannot arise. But in view of the fact that 4 of the members of the last year's Committee were elected by the "Rep. Assembly" (whether the old or new need not matter), it may perhaps be possible to continue the function and appoint two others who had been elected last time and returned in the present elections also, and constitute a Committee till the end of June 1927. re. Contn. Sheet

Submitted to His Highness.

These papers relate to the appointment of a provisional Standing Committee for Finance and Taxation during the interval - between the prorogation of the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council and the formation of a new Representative Assembly and a new Legislative Council.

Paragraphs 54 and 55 of the Government Order, dated the 27th October 1923 relating to constitutional reforms, provide for the appointment of three Standing Committees, one for the departments of Railways, Electrical and Public Works, the second for Local-Self Government and the Department of Medicine, Sanitation and Public Health and the third for Finance and Taxation. Each of these Committees is appointed annually consisting of 6 members, four being selected from a panel of 15 elected by the Representative Assembly and two from a panel of 10 elected by the Legislative Council.

The term of the old Representative Assembly expired on 12th March 1927, and that of the Legislative Council on 4th April 1927, and the members that represented the two bodies ceased to be members from the respective dates.

The rules issued for the working of the Standing Committees, while providing for a subject or subjects not being referred to the Committee on account of urgency or other reason, do not provide for its continuance during the interval between the prorogation of one Representative Assembly and Legislative Council and the formation of a new Representative Assembly and a new Legislative Council. Action has, therefore, been taken to amend paragraph 55 of the Government Order dated the 27th October 1923 providing for the appointment of a provisional Standing Committee for Finance and Taxation so that the Budgest Estimates for 1927-28 may be referred to it, before they are presented to the Representative Assembly, and, in pursuance of this order, a provisional Standing Committee hasalso been appointed in G.O.No.Rel.1414-1424/Rel.57-26-2.
